I think this can be made stronger be a a few changes
vii) I would suggest adding passive design principles
The text does not really promote healthy design - would suggest a bullet point emphasising this and perhaps referring to documents such as Sport England's Active Design for example.

Use Class E is confusing for sport.

E(d) Indoor sport, recreation or fitness (not involving motorised vehicles or firearms) While some fitness gyms or climbing centres are suitable for high street, some sports facilities are not, and Sport England is concerned the costs for sequential tests are an unnecessary financial burdens to sports operators, where common sense should prevail.
