Building on this site would affect the precious habitats of Sydlings Copse and Bayswater Brook. Any building should not strive to create new character - we already have Barton Park which is its infancy as a new estate. Along with Barton, it is a great community to which the surrounding fields and nature is a vital part of the health and wellbeing of the residents. Barton Park is meant to be a 'healthy town' and I believe this will be threatened with the proposed housing plans.

Barton Park was supposed to have high quality cycling, pedestrian and public transport links - this hasn't been provided so there is already a large housing estate that is heavily reliant on car use. The current infrastructure will not support more car users and any new roads would have a significant impact on the green belt land and SSSIs.
